

Bratt Sells a New York Loft

Benjamin Bratt, known for his starring role as a detective on the long-running series "Law & Order," has sold his three-bedroom Manhattan co-operative apartment for $2.5 million.

The 2,200-square-foot loft unit, in Greenwich Village, has beamed ceilings about 13 feet high and views of the Empire State Building.

Mr. Bratt's wife is Talisa Soto, whose film roles include the James Bond movie "Licence to Kill." The buyer is Mark Crumpacker, chief marketing officer of restaurant company Chipotle Mexican Grill Inc. Fredrik Eklund and John Gomes of Core represented Mr. Crumpacker.