Dream Homes

Chelsea $6.875 million

“Ideal for entertaining,” this 3,353-square-foot, four-bedroom condo in a full-service boutique building on Architect’s Row (that’d be West 19th Street) serves up “stellar views” of the Hudson River, the High Line and the Manhattan skyline. Meanwhile, “floor-to-ceiling” windows bring the outside in, for “fantastic light” throughout. Among the bedrooms, there are not one, but two master suites, each featuring walk-in closets, and three full bathrooms (plus two half-baths).
