

October 7, 2016

5 custom walk-in closets the size of a respectable studio apartment

This California Closet—complete with key-lock drawers for jewels—within a three-bedroom, three and a half-bath loft at 25 Bond Street (priced at $11.475 million) is almost too beautiful to clutter up with all your wardrobe essentials.

So deprived are New Yorkers of proper closets that pretty much any space that's been outfitted with a hanging bar and a couple of built-in shelves is cause for delight, which is why a custom-designed walk-in wardrobe elicits such a thrill.