

BRICK UNDERGROUND

Real Estate. Real Life. Real New York.

March 24, 2017

Six bathrooms with windows and inspiring views

Thanks to a northeast-facing master bathroom, buyers of this one-bedroom penthouse condo at 20 Pine Street (priced at $4.195 million) can enjoy views of Midtown skyscrapers and East River bridges from their custom-carved marble soaking tub.
Core

Since so many New York City bathrooms are so small and dreary they're otherwise windowless closets, finding one with a window and—bonus!—a view, is especially desirable. Here are six that offer inspiring vistas sure to enhance your morning or evening toilette.

Core

It would be a shame to cover the floor to ceiling windows of this stunning master bathroom within a three-bedroom condo at 42 Crosby Street (priced at $8.4 million); but seriously, how else is one ever supposed to get naked in that space?