As more sleek condos rise high in this 'hood, you should take note of this ever rarer prewar condo, set on East 11th Street, near Avenue C. It offers a woodburning fireplace, high ceilings, original hardwood floors and access to a common roof deck. A recent renovation means all-new kitchen and bath finishes, too. Agents: David Roger Grossmann and Maggie Kent, Core, 212-500-2121 and 212-500-2110
