Dream homes
When only a mansion will do
By Victor Wishna

Little Italy
$4.9 million

This 4,300-square-foot condo loft on Mulberry Street is touted as “a must-see for anyone wanting size.” And sure, it’s big, but this live/work space has plenty more to offer, including a “sleek” renovated kitchen, recessed lighting, power window shades and rotating, stainless-steel mesh walls. The three-bedroom, two-bathroom home also features many original details, including hardwood floors and exposed brick arches, along with four exposures and five “large” closets.
