

Co-op of the Day: 70 Remsen Street, #7D

Here's an attractive studio in a beautiful old building in Brooklyn Heights. The seventh-floor co-op at 70 Remsen Street, which is asking $319,000, has a nice clean feel as well as standard prewar touches. The monthly maintenance of $805 is less than ideal, but you are getting a full-time doorman and all your utilities thrown into the deal.
