

June 21, 2012

East Village Penthouse Featuring a Helical Slide

This sensational penthouse duplex apartment in Manhattan's East Village, New York features floor-to-ceiling windows with incredible city views in every direction, and a custom sculptural slide that combines the two floors. This convertible four bedroom, four bathroom home is comprised of over 2700-square feet of living space and is accessed through a private keyed elevator. Features include a media/game room, home office, 18-foot double height atrium, two large glass walled terraces, a private roof deck, along with a beautiful Italian-made Rintal staircase, as an alternative way down to the first floor. The kitchen is fully equipped with upgraded appliances, Oyster Stone countertops with glass and lacquer cabinetry and white maple hardwood floors throughout. This is the perfect home for work, live and play.

The penthouse is listed for sale at $3,990,000.

