

May 29, 2019

In the News

This Just In

Superior Restoration Products has completed work on the One Wall Street's Red Room. Designed in 1931 by muralist Hildreth Meière, the walls and ceilings of the room are covered in orange and gold glass tile mosaic. The room served as a banking hall for the Ralph Walker-designed building and will now become a retail space when SLCE Architects' office to residential condo conversion is complete in 2020.