

BRICK UNDERGROUND

Real Estate. Real Life. Real New York.

August 25, 2017

5 alluring apartments with glass-walled showers

If the goal is simply to keep the water from spraying all over the bathroom floor, a $10 shower curtain will get the job done. But for a stylish, minimalist look, a glass wall is the way to go. These apartments are all different, and each has a lot going for it, but they all have a see-through partition in common.

Core

At 60 Beach St. in Tribeca a three-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath condo (on the market for $5.950 million) has a master bathroom with a glass-walled wet room, complete with soaking tub and rainfall shower.

Core

This five bedroom penthouse condo at 403 Greenwich St. in Tribeca includes this en-suite master bath outfitted in custom Carrara marble with radiant floor heating, a designer double vanity, plus a soaking tub and a separate, glass-walled rain shower. Yours for $12.5 million.