

CITYREALTY

September 15, 2017

The Low Six: Fresh listings for less than $500K

326 East 73rd Street. Image: Core

Finding an affordable apartment in a great neighborhood isn't easy. But they're out there, with new finds hitting the market every day. Below you'll find a handful of recently-listed apartments in your favorite neighborhoods, all for under $500,000.

326 East 73rd Street. Image: Core

326 East 73rd Street, #3A - $495,000
1 bed, 1 bath

This adorable one-bedroom co-op shows what designer talent can do for a small apartment. High ceilings, white oak floors and a great Upper East Side location don't hurt, but the stylish and well-appointed kitchen, elegant lighting and reclaimed wood accents make this space seem like a find indeed. There are also quartz countertops, glass French doors, big closets and plenty of sun to enjoy, and we're guessing a new owner will be doing just that, very soon.