

November 19, 2018

Tour this Newly Listed $5 Million Residence in the Soo K. Chan-Designed Five One Five

There is a new listing to hit the market in the Soo K. Chan of SCDA-designed Five One Five, Hudson Yards' newest luxury condominium building. Residence 5N is a two-bedroom, three-bathroom unit is spread over 2,133 SF. The home features floor-to-ceiling glass, filling the unit with natural light and offering spectacular views of the iconic High Line and West Chelsea. The unit also features wide plank light oak floors, direct keyed elevator entry, 10' ceilings, as well as Delta LED light fixtures and Lutron HomeWorks QS System for electronics, temperature control, shades and lighting. The Bulthaup kitchen is equipped with a complete suite of Gaggenau appliances, aluminum backsplash, 10mm quartz countertops and a multi-purpose island. The custom closets and wardrobes throughout the residence were designed by Molteni and the bathrooms are outfitted with Duravit and Dornbracht fixtures plus the master bathroom offers radiant heat flooring.

Five One Five is designed to reflect the neighborhoods urban and industrial roots with a glass fin facade blended with Soo Chan's signature fluid style. The luxurious boutique building features just 15 residences and amenities include a gym, 24-hour attended lobby, private storage and a roof deck with kitchen.

515 West 29th Street #5N is currently listed for $5,000,000 with Matthew Cohen and Adie Kriegstein of CORE NYC.

