KANYE WEST'S FORMER NEW YORK APARTMENT

For years, this 2,427-square-foot unit at 25 West Houston St. served as Kim and Kanye's base in SoHo. One year after they sold it, it's on the market again. The corner unit offers outstanding city views to the north and east, via 13 oversized windows. French limestone flooring is found throughout the home, while pearwood can be found on both the kitchen cabinetry and floor-to-ceiling closets in the hallway. The open kitchen is ideal for entertaining, with a massive stone island complementing the apartment's earth tone scheme, Subzero and Miele appliances, and a customized Gaggenau cooktop.
