

Another New Condo in Williamsburg

August 10th, 2010

Add another one to the long list of Williamsburg condo buildings that have launched this summer: 99 Havemeyer Street, at Hope, is a six-unit building with a private garage, 17-foot ceilings, and floor-to-ceiling windows. StreetEasy shows that sales at the Scarano-designed building got underway in mid-June but haven't exactly been sizzling, with just one unit in contract so far. Prices range from $630,000 to $690,000 for these one- and two-bedrooms.
