Six homes for sale in stunning, architecturally-significant NYC buildings

25 Bond Street is an eight-story loft building with a façade made up of asymmetrical layering of Jerusalem limestone, bronze and glass to create a contemporary design that still honors the historical significance and style of the neighborhood.

While it's true one should never judge a book by its cover alone, sometimes a cover is so stunning it begs a look inside. The same can be said for a home in a building that makes a strong architectural statement. Here, six prime examples.

Core

From the inside, this three bedroom, three and a half-bathroom condo at 25 Bond Street in NoHo (snap it up for $10 million) includes a 45' wide great room with 10'6" ceilings and over nine foot tall, bronze sliding window walls that allow for great natural light.
