

Six homes that offer picture-perfect views of Macy's annual 4th of July fireworks festivities

Watch the fireworks in style (and serious comfort) from the living room 435 East 52nd Street (yours for $5.750 million).

The 41st annual Macy's 4th of July Fireworks on Tuesday display will ignite from five barges along the East River. Here, six homes offering the best views from which to catch all the sparkly action.

Core

A 3,500-square-foot townhouse at 257 Berry Street in Williamsburg (on the market for $4.5 million) includes four bedrooms, three and a half bathrooms and a roof deck with 360 degree unobstructed views.

Citi Habitats

Located on the 21st floor of 301 East 50th Street, this three-bedroom, three-bathroom condo (for rent at $16,000/month), includes a corner living/dining room with East River views perfect for catching Tuesday's light show.

Triplemint

For those planning Independence Day parties, this two-bedroom, two-bathroom condo at 20 Bayard Street in Williamsburg, a features a 458-square-foot wraparound terrace with views of the Manhattan skyline that makes a perfect place for watching the fireworks with friends.

Corcoran

This two-bedroom, two-bathroom co-op at 45 Sutton Place South (yours for $1.695 million) has Southern and Eastern exposures offering darn good views of the river—and, presumably, the fireworks, too.

Nest Seekers

Finally, this two bedroom, two-bathroom co-op at 455 East 51st Street (listed at $2.395 million) includes a living room, office, master bedroom and terrace that all face the East River, so the whole family can catch the pyrotechnics from multiple rooms at once.
