

September 18, 2013

Photo Flash: Casey Nicholaw, Danny Burstein & More Raise Money for Matthew Shepard Foundation

Last night, Casey Nicholaw and Josh Marquette hosted a cocktail event to benefit the Matthew Shepard Foundation at One Museum Mile (1280 Fifth Avenue). Attendees included Broadway luminaries Jeff Blumenkrantz, Danny Burstein, Carolee Carmello, Jeanine Tesori and Michael James Scott, and stars of HGTV's Selling New York Tom Postilio and Mickey Conlon. The event raised over $7,500 for the Matthew Shepard Foundation.

Check out photos from the special event below!

The Matthew Shepard Foundation seeks to replace hate with understanding, compassion and acceptance. For more information, please visit www.matthewshepard.org.

Nicholaw, a longtime supporter of the Foundation, is the Tony Award winning co-director of The Book of Mormon along with Trey Parker. He was also nominated for Tony Awards for directing and choreographing The Drowsy Chaperone, choreographing Monty Python's Spamalot, and choreographing The Book of Mormon.

One Museum Mile is a new residential condominium located at 1280 Fifth Avenue on Central Park in Manhattan. The 116 residential interiors at One Museum Mile were created by Andre Kikoski. Robert A.M. Stern Architects, LLP served as design architect for the building. SLCE Architects served as architect-of-record. Amenities include a landscaped roof terrace, rooftop pool and terrace overlooking Central Park, fitness center with terrace, and a residents' lounge with fireplace. For more information, please visit www.onemuseummile.com.

Mickey Conlon, Casey Nicholaw, Tom Postilio, Mark Sendroff

Chuck Steffan, Tom Postilio, Ron Abel

Danny Burstein, Casey Nicholaw

Josh Marquette, Michael James Scott