Manhattan real estate industry leader and top producer Doron Zwickel has joined CORE as executive vice president.

Zwickel comes to CORE as one of the best agents at Prudential Douglas Elliman where he was ranked number two for number of transactions and was also consistently ranked at the top for gross commissions.

A specialist in new development, Zwickel has successfully sold over $300 million of real estate, including selling out many of the city's notable buildings during the worst days of the economic downturn.
