Condo of the Day: 190 West Street, #8

It's hard not to fall for the high ceilings, exposed joists and open loft space of this one-bedroom condo at 190 West Street in Greenpoint, except a lot of new high-rise construction will be coming across the street soon.

The unit has 1,364 square feet of space, according to the listing. Do you think they will get their asking price of $1,825,000?
