Rental of the Day: 111 South 2nd Street, #GRDN

This one-bedroom garden apartment in south Williamsburg is lovely and has an old-fashioned feel even though it's completely renovated. There is a 350-square-foot private backyard with a bluestone terrace and a large kitchen with stainless steel counters and appliances. The bathroom is attractively updated as well, and the clawfoot tub, bead board and patterned black and white floor tiles give it an old-timey flavor. Do you think $3,450 a month sounds about right for the location and condition?
