

April 30, 2014

One Museum Mile at 1280 Fifth Avenue is 100 Percent Sold

Photo: onemuseummile.com

One Museum Mile at 1280 Fifth Avenue is sold out.

Brickman developed the 115-unit building, which was designed by Robert A.M. Stern Architects.

Andre Kikoski did the interiors, which feature open kitchens and breakfast bars, Bosch dishwashers and stainless steel appliances by Thermador.

Amenities include a 24-hour concierge, landscaped roof terrace, rooftop pool and terrace overlooking Central Park, gym with terrace and residents' lounge with fireplace. There is also a media lounge and card room, children's playroom, game room, formal conference and dining room, bicycle storage, cold storage in the lobby and private storage. A 421a tax abatement is in place.