

February 14, 2012

New York City's Most Mind-Boggling Red and Pink Rooms

Happy Valentine's Day, everybody! In honor of this day of universal happiness and joy, where nobody is super sad and alone and just barely holding it together right now, we bring you a list of the best red and pink rooms of all time, an inordinate number of which seem to be located on Park Avenue. Unlike Valentine's Day candy, these listings will not be 50 percent off tomorrow. (Or perhaps they will be.)

Status: Available. The red carpet seems to stretch through much of this Flatiron condo ($3,295,000), turning most of its rooms into red rooms. The one with red walls take the cake, though.