Spend a Day Looking Out the Windows of the Blue Penthouse

The penthouse at LES condo Blue, the building beloved by everyone from the Jersey Shore cast to Nicolai Ouroussoff, has been on the market at $14,000/month since early April. The unit was recently staged, so Curbed videographer David Sherwin toted his camera over for a visit. And not just any visit—a time lapse of a whole day spent in the Blue penthouse. Since today's weather is, yep, still cloudy, the apartment probably looks much the same right now.
