At $12m, it's a steal: Carmelo Anthony's former 4,000-square-foot Manhattan pad overlooking Central Park goes on sale

The New York Knicks forward rented the 5 bedroom home with wife LaLa Anthony but the couple recently purchased a $11M apartment in Chelsea

If you're in the market for an apartment with a prime location and an unbeatable view, Carmelo Anthony's former Manhattan digs have hit the cutthroat New York real estate market.

You too can live like the 6-foot-8 Knicks star, where high ceilings are an absolute must, for a cool $12 million.

Sound steep? You haven't see the gorgeous sunsets over the park.

The big ticket price also affords a lucky buyer five gorgeous bedrooms and an address on Manhattan's posh Fifth Avenue, home to some of the world's wealthiest and most famous power players.
