

DOMAINE

July 31, 2014

Real Estate Envy: 5 Gorgeous 19th Century Homes

If there's anything we've learned from our grandparents — and our many days of antiquing! — it's that the old should be cherished. So if you ever have the opportunity to purchase an older home, do it. Do it, and take care of it, and celebrate all of its intricate moldings and special details. Here to guide us through some of the most beautiful 19th-century homes on the market is Alex Brunkhorst, LA-based real estate agent and founder of Bungalux. From a Greek Revival home with gorgeous exposed brick walls in Manhattan's West Village to a crown jewel in one of Savannah, Georgia's most beautiful historic squares, beauty awaits.

The Benjamin Mansion

Location: Boston, MA

Price: $13,950,000

Listing Type: Townhouse

Beds/Baths: 6/6.3

Year Built: 1828

Bragging Rights: Fantastic location in Boston overlooking the Public Garden.

Professional Opinion: It's super interesting that they put a rooftop infinity pool on a 19th Century townhouse – yet another example of mixing old and new.

Federal Townhouse

Location: New York, NY

Price: $6,000,000

Listing Type: Townhouse

Beds/Baths: 3/3.1

Year Built: NA

Bragging Rights: The Village.

Professional Opinion: This is a great example of an old property done very “modern” – I love the mix.

Savannah Jewel

Location: Savannah, GA

Price: $3,400,000

Listing Type: Townhouse

Beds/Baths: 6/6.1

Year Built: 1858

Bragging Rights: The square in which this house is located has literary provenance: It was made famous in the book Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil.

Professional Opinion: I love the proportions of the rooms and the original details.

Village Glamour

Location: New York, NY

Price: $7,395,000

Listing Type: Townhouse

Beds/Baths: 2/2.1

Year Built: 1833

Bragging Rights: Bank Street – one of the coolest streets in The Village, in my humble opinion.

Professional Opinion: Great large scaled rooms in a hot 'hood.

The Theodore Gaillard House

Location: Charleston, SC

Price: $11,950,000

Listing Type: Single Family

Beds/Baths: 12/11.0

Year Built: 1800

Bragging Rights: One of Charleston's most famous houses.

Professional Opinion: For those of you who love historic real estate and haven't been to Charleston, you must go. The houses there are to die for!

Head here to see more of Brunkhorst's other wonderful real estate finds!