

NEW YORK POST

May 2, 2013

Dream Homes

Clinton $5.95 million

See if this makes you feel like royalty: “Crowning” the 43rd and 44th floors above West 52nd Street, this “glittering” duplex penthouse is “one of the rarest jewels” adorning the “incandescent” Manhattan skyline. No? How about this: an open floor plan offering 2,022 square feet of interior space, with three bedrooms and 3 1/2 bathrooms, plus an adjacent private terrace. The “floor-to-ceiling” windows allow for “bird’s-eye views” of Central Park, Broadway and Times Square. Also, residing in the building means access to concierge services, a fitness center and a 3,200-square-foot landscaped terrace. Agents: Tom Postilio and Mickey Conlon, CORE, 212-726-0783 and 212-612-9623