Entertaining guru Colin Cowie is in contract to sell his penthouse duplex at 27 W. 19th St. The 3,000-square-foot, three-bedroom, 2½-bathroom unit with a fireplace, listed with Core's Emily Beare, was asking $5.75 million.

Gimme Shelter once profiled Cowie in the apartment, which was designed for entertaining. It comes with lots of stealthy James Bond-like details, including a hidden, fully stocked wet bar, an open dining room and chef's kitchen with tons of storage, along with hidden pocket doors to close off the dining room.

There's also a private rooftop terrace and dumbwaiter service from the first floor kitchen.
