

Paul Pierce Nets $35K Per Month NYC Apartment

FRANKLIN SPEAKING: Nets small forward Paul Pierce is renting a four-bedroom unit at Franklin Tower that was asking $35K a month.

Brooklyn Nets All-Star Paul Pierce and his wife, Julie, have just moved into a full-floor loft apartment in TriBeCa's 90 Franklin St., the same building where Mariah Carey owns the penthouse. Pierce's 5,000-square-foot, four-bedroom home, with 28 windows, was asking $35,000 a month and includes a woodburning fireplace.

Known as Franklin Tower, the 1915 building once served as the Corn Exchange Bank in 1930. The 18-story condo features a roof deck, gym and bike storage.

Pierce isn't the only Nets player to snub Brooklyn: Fellow All-Star Joe Johnson also moved into a rental in the same 'hood last year.

CORE listing broker Oliver Brown declined to comment.