

June 18, 2017

Open House: An Old Convent Turned Luxury Home

We're on historic Prince Street in Nolita to view a home with ties to old New York. Built in the 1820s, the structure was originally the school and convent of Saint Patrick's Old Cathedral. It has now been beautifully reimagined as a luxurious townhouse filled with every conceivable amenity.

