

NEW YORK POST

March 26, 2015

$5.595 MILLION
MIDTOWN WEST

People who live in glass houses would still be jealous of the floor-to-ceiling windows — not to mention the private terrace — that define this “glittering” duplex penthouse that sits 43 (and 44) floors above West 52nd Street, just off Eighth Avenue. The living/dining-room views stretch from Central Park to Times Square, while the master suite offers “sweeping vistas” of the Hudson River. There are three bedrooms and 3½ bathrooms, and the services of this Costas Kondylis-designed Link condo building include a 24-hour doorman, concierge, fitness center and additional private storage space. Agents: Tom Postilio and Mickey Conlon, Core, 212-726-0783 and 212-612-9623